

Hey you, yeah you, the one straining his eyes to read the logo above. It says INSANITY, and quite frankly, they are a sight for sore eyes!!!!!! I think that INSANITY are the best band to come out of the Bay Area since POSSESSED. They are better than SACRILEGE, BLOODBATH, DAMNAKLEEZ, and totally blow away the worthless ones like BLACK DETHE, and DESECRATION. They combine incredible rawness and total death vocals (like those of POSSESSED) with great guitar-work and excellent songs.

INSANITY was formed in September of '85 and proceeded to record a reh./demo. They are selling this in hopes of making enough money to do a studio demo. Now, judging from this one, with a studio demo, INSANITY could do some serious damage. They have been gigging around the Bay with the likes of POSSESSED, SACRILEGE, and BAPHOMET (???). With the average age of 19, its scary to think how good they could become. With their financial problems and shit, all they need is a big push from you people to get them some record interest. And they really deserve it too, and I don't mean from some bullshit company either. With all this babbling about how good INSANITY are, you're probably wondering who the band members are. Well, they are: Joe DeZuniga, vocals, rhythm/lead guitar, Dave Gorsuch, lead/rhythm guitar, Keith Ellison, bass and bass leads, and Bud Mills, drums. Oh yeah, Bud just got thrown in jail, adding to the bands troubles. This should be an added incentive for you to order their demo, because like I said, all they need is the right push. For your copy of INSANITY's reh./demo, which contains the songs "Fire, Death, Fate", "Blood For Blood" and "Ultimate Death", send $5.00 (U.S. and Canada) or $7.00 (Overseas) to: INSANITY
